Our Echo

Fox High School

Fox, Okla.

Volume XVII

One of Oklahoma's best known sons, James Garner once remarked after visiting his hometown, Norman, Oklahoma, that "No matter where you go on this earth, you never really leave the people you love."

Even a man who has been blessed with an abundance of life's treasures can see that where he was born and where he spent his growing years will always remain in his heart.

We spent a part of our life at Fox. Perhaps a few now in school will become famous and travel the four winds, see the world, fight on foreign soil, never see again the fields, the oil derricks and Fox High where we crammed, perhaps too lightly, for our education, but we will remember, and every time we do, we can see the fields, the derricks and Old Fox High.

This book, "Our Echo," is made to take with you, to help you to return and revisit with your old friends and to see the fields and the derricks, and to help you become young and carefree again, as we are now.

Bon Voyage! Or is it WELCOME to Fox, it's only around the next page.

Lish Cross and Tom Blevins

Tom Blevins and his wife are all dressed up for their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Dedicated To Two Old Foxes

In choosing a dedication this year, we decided to look further than the bounds of the campus, but only far enough away to someone close to the school yet not actually connected with it. In doing so we discovered two fine old gentlemen who have given their attention and support to Fox.

Lish Cross and Tom Blevins, for your undying spirit, your support and your friendly ways, we dedicate this annual to you.

Lish Cross has lived in this community 73 years. Now at 75 he is still very active and attends nearly all activities at Fox. He and his wife, Rosa, have raised a boy and a girl and have seen them attain their education here at Fox. His daughter, Marie LeBeau, is now teaching the second grade here. Not only has he helped his children get an education but he has stood behind his three grandchildren and helped them graduate.

Equally active at 73 is Tom Blevins. He moved to this community in 1917 and he and his wife, Lizzie, have raised six sons and one daughter. The boys attended school at Fox and were members of the football team. Four of these sons still live in this community and all take part in most school activities.

The grandchildren of Tom and Lizzie have been top honor students. Many maintained straight A's throughout high school. Tom Blevins was always behind them giving them support whenever they needed it.

Most of the students here know and love these two YOUNG foxes. From them comes the spirit which in the past and the future will always be Fox's greatest asset.

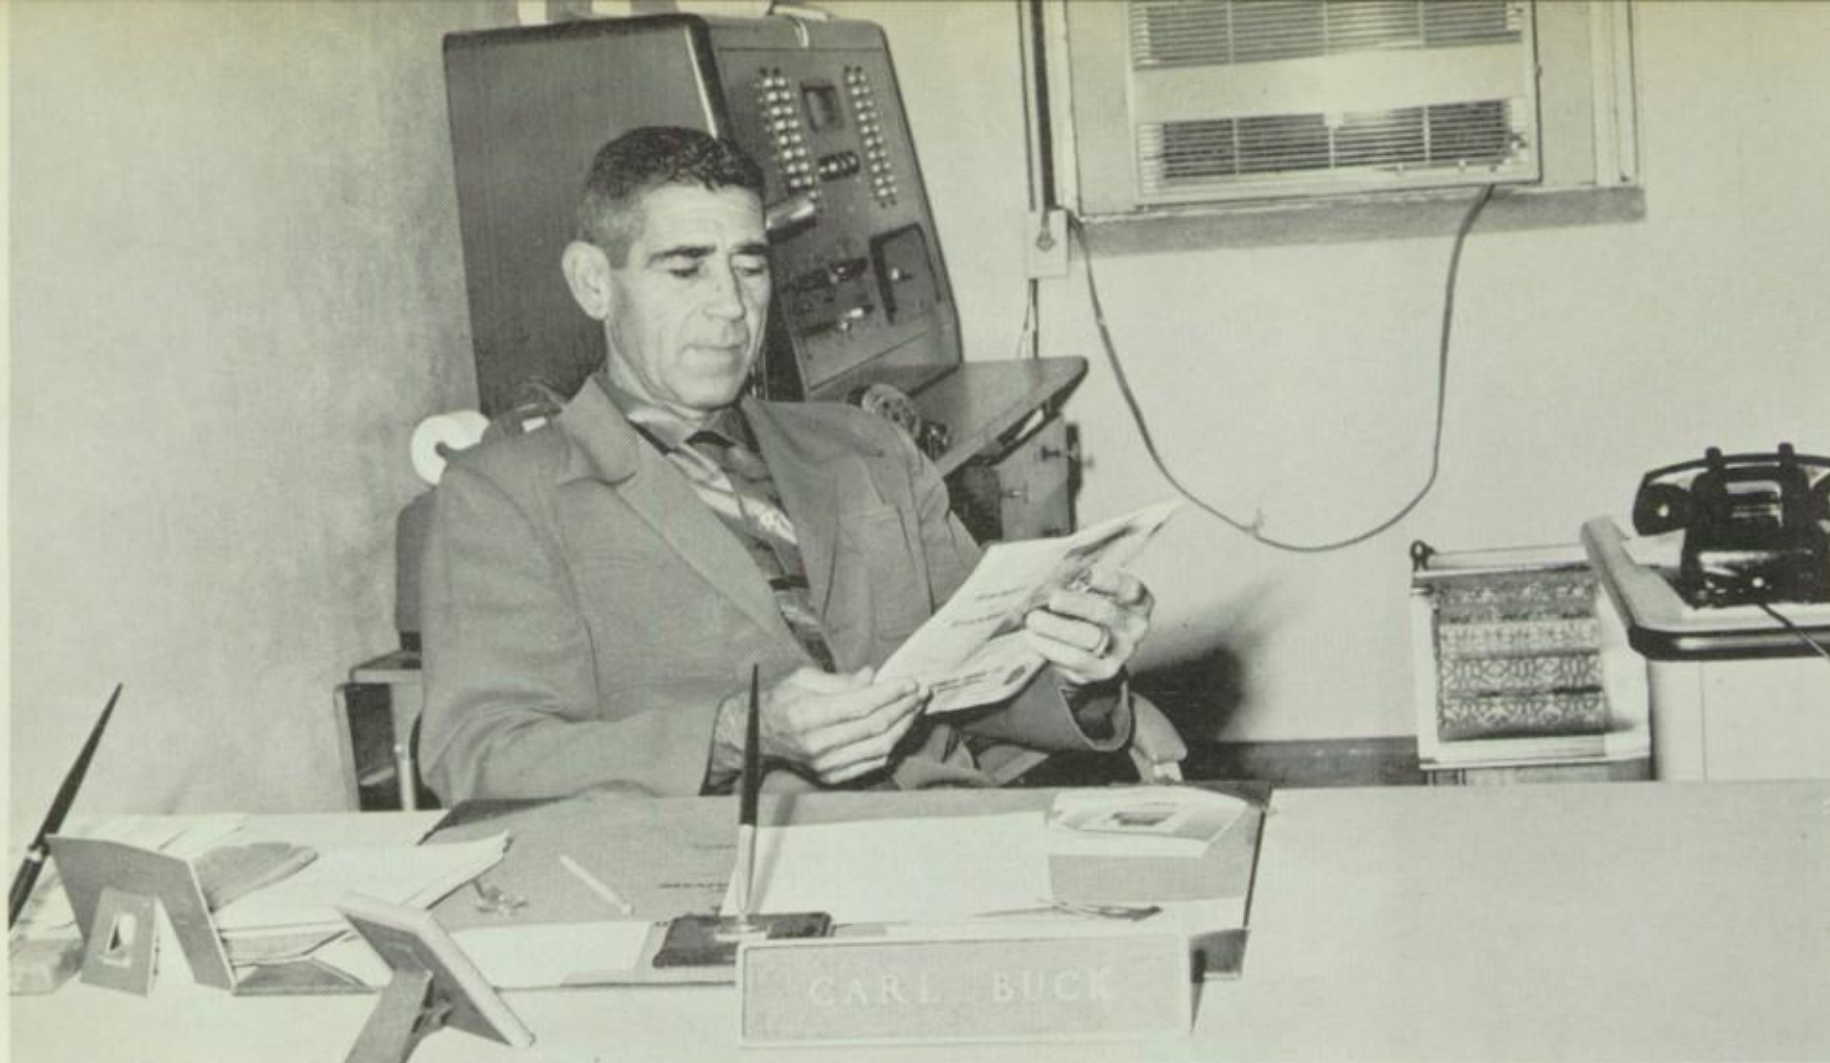

In 1956 the Fox School cafeteria was erected. Its designer was Miss Virginia Sheffield. Carl Buck was Superintendent. Members of the Board of Education were Otha McGlasson, H. B. Ward, Jess Phipps, Wylie Dixon, and J. D. Garrett.

This building houses equipment and two separate football dressing rooms. It was erected in 1953. The Fox campus consists of twelve buildings, which are grade school, junior high, senior high, vocational agriculture, industrial arts, vocational welding, garage, cafeteria, audio visual, Fox Den, band - home economics - science department, and football.

THE BIG BOSSES

Carl Buck has been superintendent of Fox Schools for the past ten years and a member of the faculty for twenty-seven years. He has traveled to New York City on several occasions to attend School Masters Committees. His last trip was made in October.

Our school leaders lead the way to every student's future

Miss Virginia Sheffield, Secretary of Fox School has an indispensable job in our school system. She has many responsibilities and duties and handles all of them expertly.

MAINTENANCE MEN. Boots Taylor, Cardova Morse, Roscoe O'Dell, and Tom Hoggard get their daily reports from Mr. Buck each morning. These men are jacks-of-all-trades. They help everyone from the student to the superintendent.

Co-workers are the backbone of our school

CAFETERIA WOMEN. Mrs. McClain, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Perdue, Mrs. Creel, Mrs. Norvill, and Mrs. Wood, the head cook, not pictured, work long hours to prepare meals for our student body and faculty. They help to make each meal more pleasant with their friendly personalities.

Student bus drivers are Kenneth Tivis, Bob Paul, Charles Kenyon, and Frank Shebester. Not in the picture are George Cheves, Robert Eason, and Bryant Harmon. Their jobs are a very important part of Fox School.

Student Bus Drivers

Eleven buses carry approximately 600 students to and from school each day. They cover an area of 180 square miles in our independent district #74. Each bus has a seating capacity of 48 to 66 and costs from $4,500 to $5,500.

"Give me a great big F!" The Fox high school cheerleaders lead yells in pep assembly.

A group of high school boys seem to be discussing something while Mickey Benton and Dale Wood pose for the camera.

Paula Barrick, Norma Hoggard, and Linda Sturdivant sing "Our Ole Fox High School" in pep assembly.

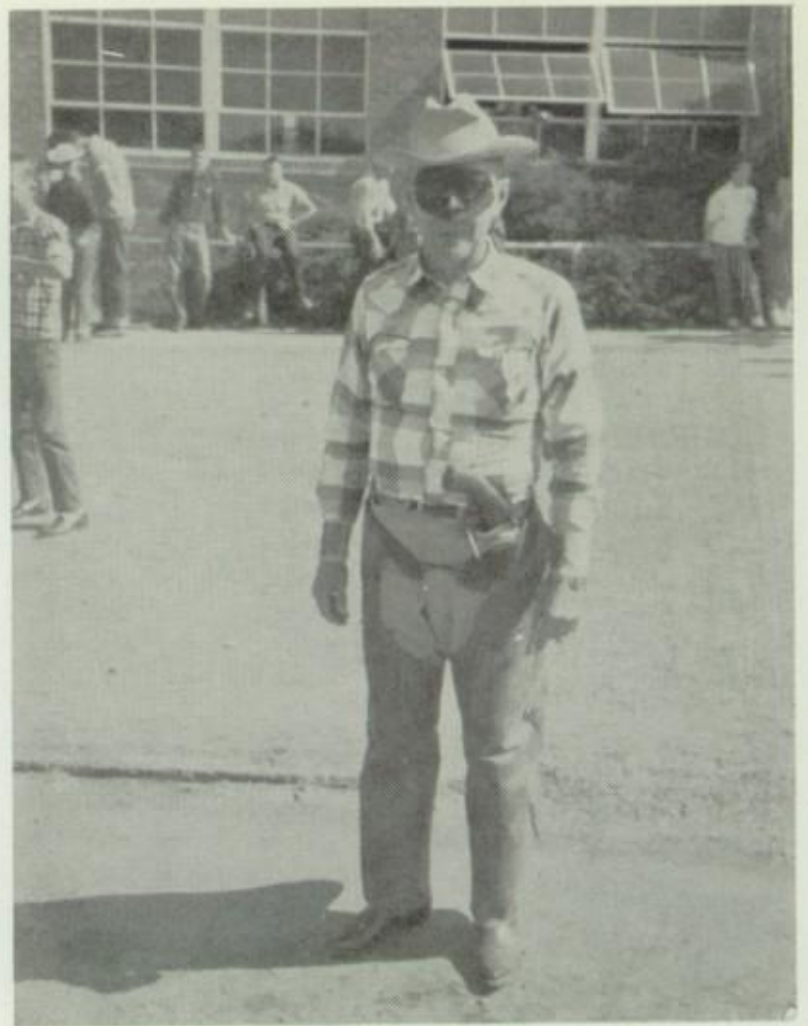

Terry Propst has his eye on something as everyone else is enjoying the annual Band Carnival.

Seventh graders, Marie Fore, Linda Emberlin, Linda Spencer, and Charlene Ruth, swap talk during the noon period.

This quartet consists of Seniors, Vivian Cline, Imogene Morse, Sandra Irwin, and Joyce Walker.

The Lone Ranger rides again! Mr. O'Neal stepped out in western garb on Western Day. The students really appreciated this.

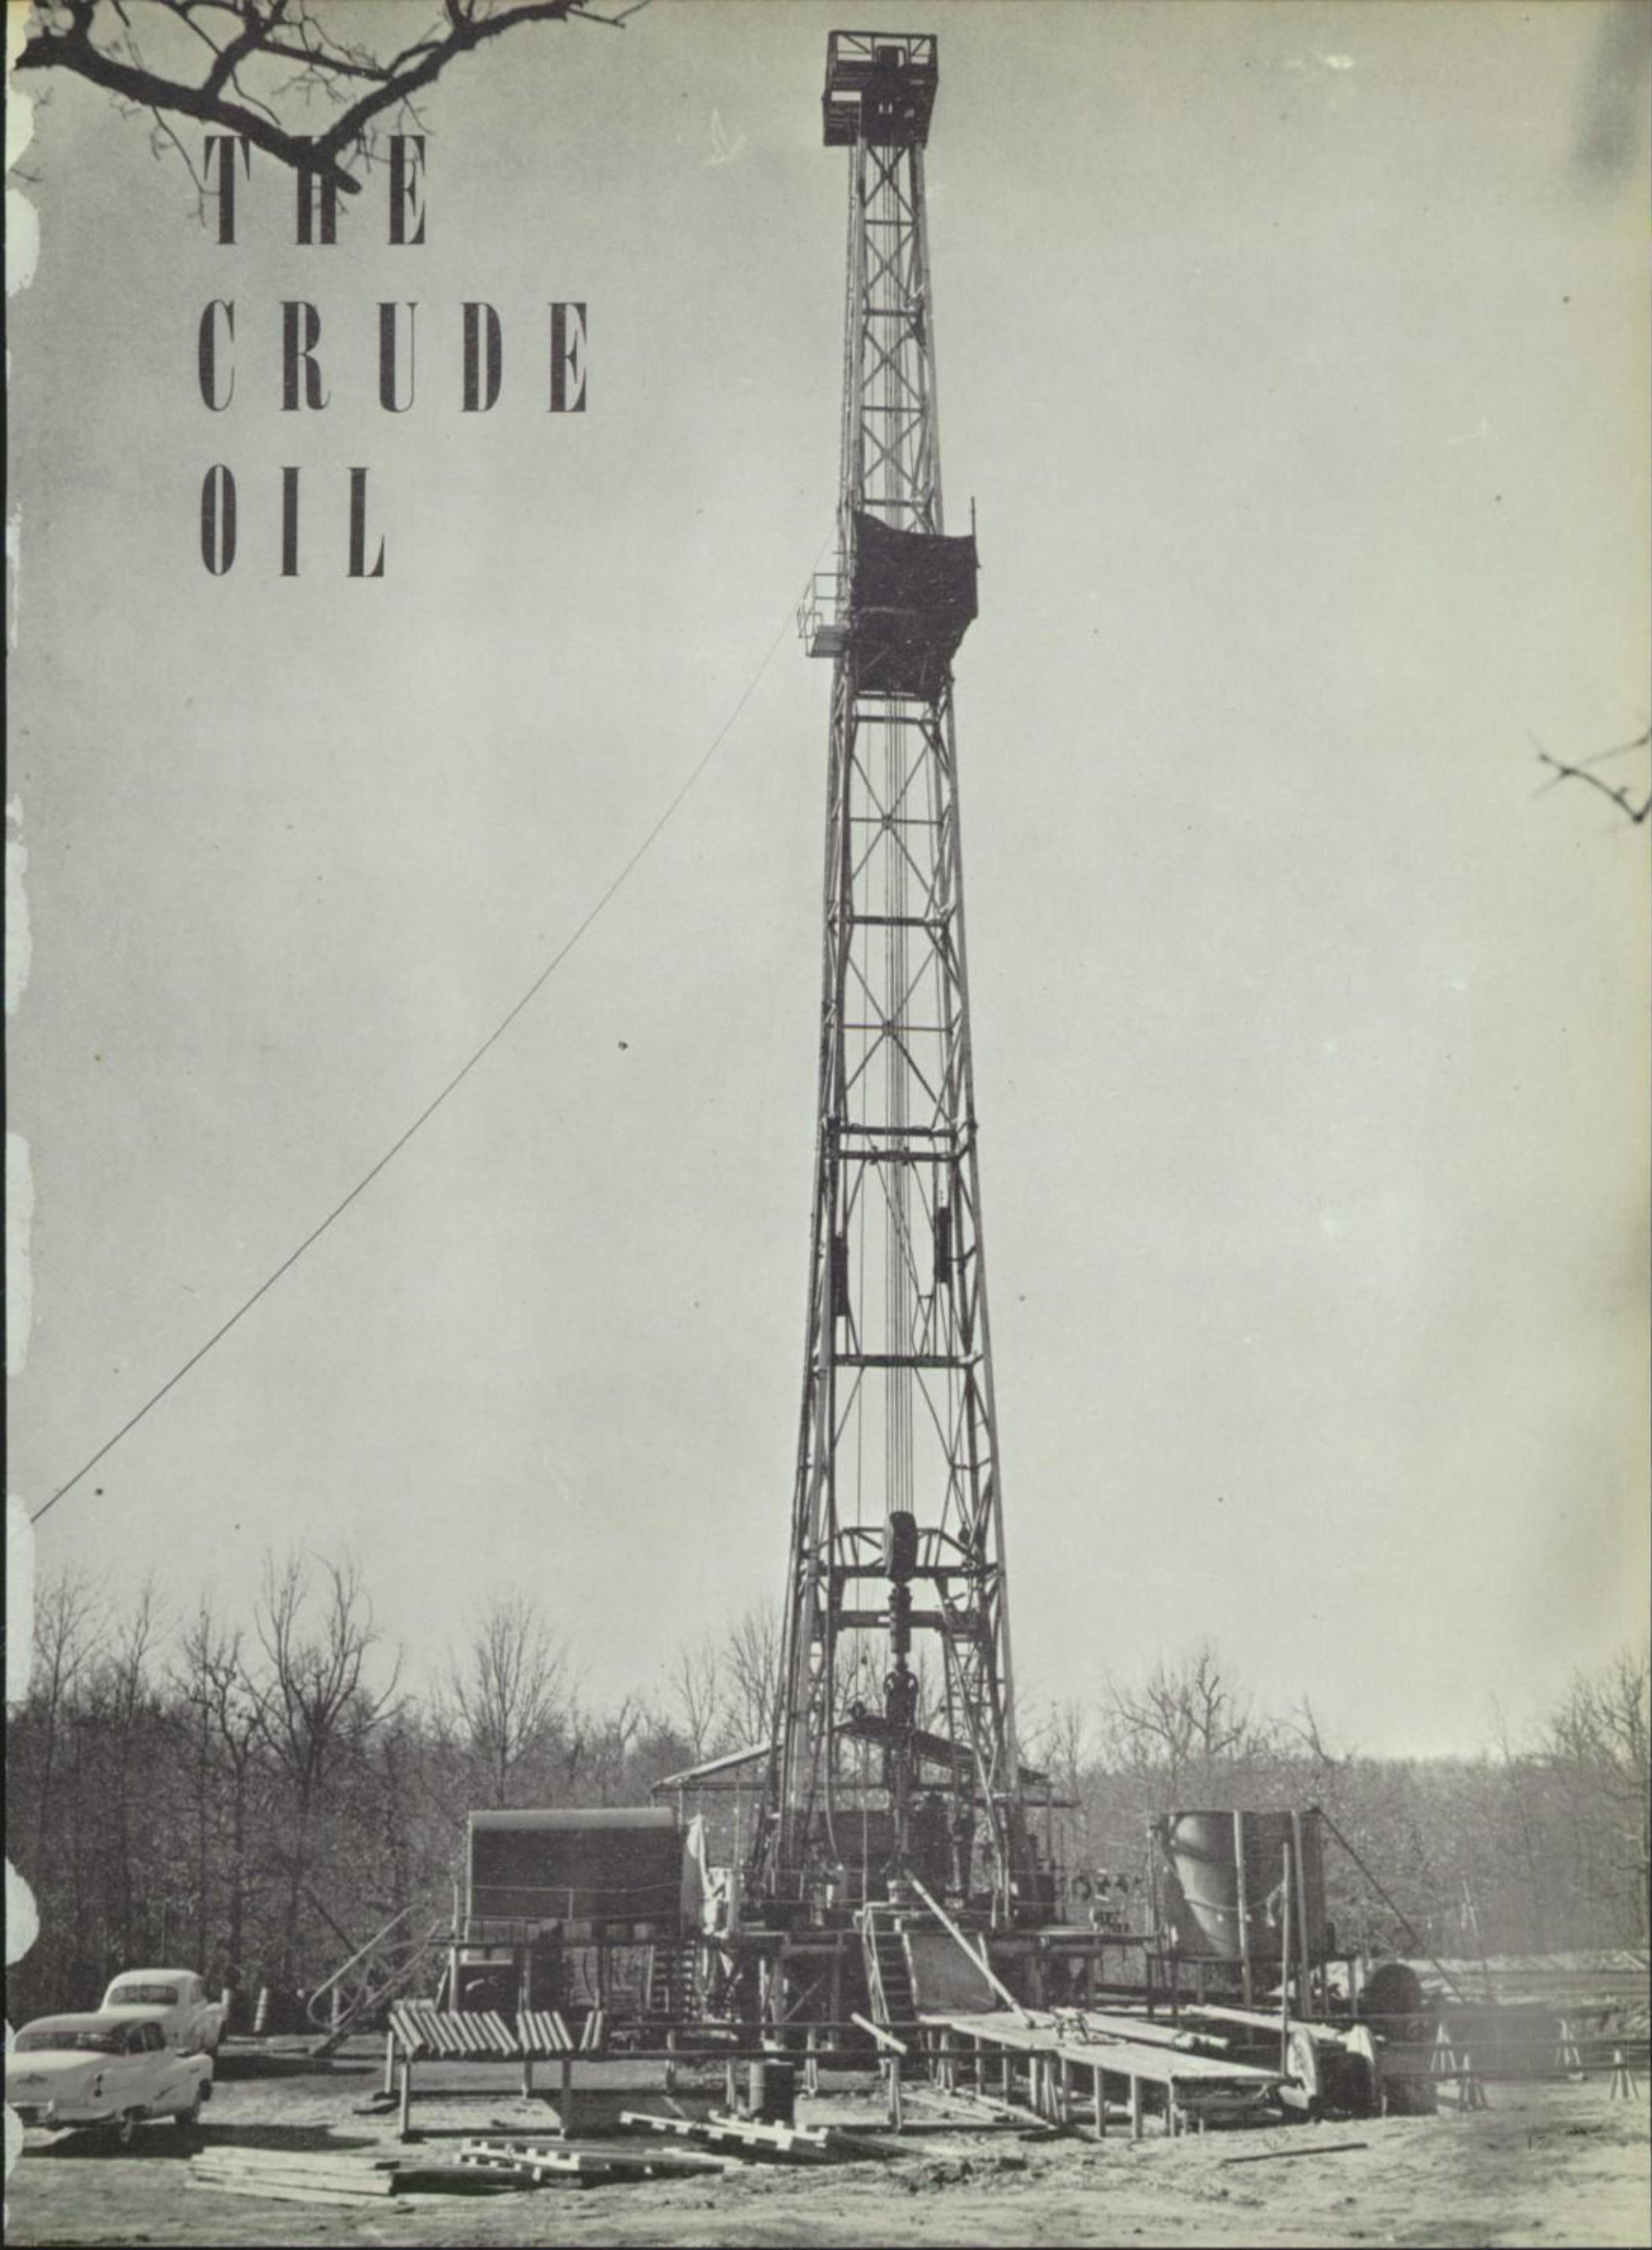

Roy Rogers and Dale Evans turned out to be Donna Wells and Joe Skelton. They are in typical Western Day dress.

Bunny Hill, Johnny Powell, Linda Irwin, Ronnie Thomas, Tommy Worsham, and Peggy Griffin combine studying and courting during the noon hour.

These smiling faces are those of first grades out on the play ground. Intelligent looking, aren't they?

The first grade was divided into three classes under Mrs. Mabel Badley, Mrs. George Taylor and Miss Shirley Stilley.

Carol Nell Kerns, Rebecca Lewis and Kay Jackson were nominated for grade echo queens. Rebecca Lewis won the race and reigns as Grade Echo Queen.

First Semester Honor Roll students were Jimmie Kay Jackson, Patsy Mefford, Michael Harris, Joe Dan Skelton, Ronnie Lee Worsham, Mary Kay Scaggs, Henry Ray Norton, Rebecca Lewis, Judith Dodd, Deborah Shafer, Janice Sturdivant, Stanley Williams, Kathy Dixon, Gaylin Eason, Karen Griffin, Carol Nell Kerns, Pamela Moody, Lecia Tinsley.

The three classes presented "Mother Goose" as their assembly program.

Parties were held at Christmas, Valentines Day, Easter and after the first grade play.

Studying hard are these fifth grade students in Mrs. Garrett's studyhall.

Studies along with play made a very successful year of school for the fifth graders with Miss Norvill and Mrs. Garrett as their homeroom sponsors.

Carol Melton was chosen echo candidate from Miss Norvill's homeroom and Sharon Ponder was chosen from Mrs. Garrett's.

Fifth graders with perfect attendance are: Mike Kirkpatrick, Jimmy Ogden, Barry Boles, Freddy Tinsley, Gareld Wiley, Paulla Collier, Janis Griffith, Judy Hoggard, Frances McClain, Fredda McClain, Mildred Paul, Thomas Blevins, Millege Doyal, Larry Sisco, Ronny Sisco, Robert Stewart, Carol Acree, Josephine Biggs, Carol Melton, and Kathy Penuel.

In December both fifth grade homerooms presented "Windows of Christmas," an operetta in two acts.

Watercolors, crayons, terpera paints and nature plaques made art a very enjoyable subject. Indian pottery was made from molding clay that was baked and painted with enamel paint.

The Sixth Grade is practicing on their assembly program which was presented on Open House Day.

The Sixth Grade under Mr. Merle Watson and Mrs. Harry Cheadle prepared for graduation in May.

Jo Lee Cheadle and Betty Gillespie were nominated for annual queen.

Mr. Watson's officers were President; Jimmy Godfrey, Vice-President; Ronald Byrd, Secretary-Treasurer; Jo Lee Cheadle, Reporter; Darlene Dilbeck, Songleader; Jack Wilbur, Librarians; Suzanne Jennings and Winford Wood.

Mrs. Cheadle's officers were President; Ramona Jones, Vice-President; Doris Blevins, Secretary; Diana Selby, Songleader; Gearldine Corsaut, Reporter; Jane Worsham.

In November the sixth grade presented a very enjoyable play centered around a patriotic theme. Members of the sixth grade accompanied soloists with a liberty chorus. Several readings, poems and songs made it one of the best plays of the year.

Sixth grade teaches work in a new crew for graduation.

THE ROUSTABOUTS

"Our Echo" Staff of 1959

Our echo edited by Janice Blevins sold 340 copies in the Fall Annual Sales campaign. This total was the largest number to be sold in several years. The theme of "Our Echo" was oil. It was the aim of the Annual Staff to show the history and the relationship between oil and our school. Considerable research and hard work went into this book before the last deadline was met March 15.

Janice Blevins, Editor, and Mrs. McCreary check layouts for the annual.

Rocille Wooldridge, Assistant Editor, Sandra Irwin, Business Manager, and Mollie Allen, Assistant Editor were a big help in producing this year's annual.

Extra! Extra! Fox Flash

With the new A.B. Dick mimeograph machine, the Fox Flash has published 19 papers with a bi-weekly circulation of 260. The Staff under the sponsorship of Leland O'Neal has attended two paper workshops at the University of Oklahoma, one in the fall and one in the spring. Representing the student body in their wants and needs and to bring the news to all school attendants has been the aim of the Fox Flash this year.

Editor, Herschel Randolph, and Assistant Editor, KOLEEN MOSS, look over the latest edition of the Fox Flash.

Barbara Blackburn, Rocille Wooldridge, and Kenneth Tivis, admire the new mimeograph machine purchased this year.

6 - B Conference Champions

The Fox Foxes won the 6-B Conference this year and boasted a record of seven wins in ten games. Coach Harry Cheadle was voted "Coach of the Year" by The Daily Ardmorite. This was his second year at Fox and his first year as head coach. His assistants were Jason Frizzell and Lloyd Skelton.

The Foxes had six seniors picked for the All District Team this year. They were chosen by the coaches in the conference. The boys were Bob Paul, Gary Reynolds, Jimmy Sanders, Chester Anderson, Charles Kenyon, and Joe Skelton. Dale Wood was the only junior from the three schools to be picked for the team. Charles Appling, Ronnie Hollingsworth, Phillip Cross, Paul Groover, Jerry Briscoe, and Joe Fellabaum, seniors, were also lettered.

With the help of the students, teachers, the public, five girls who were cheerleaders, and most of all the 33 boys on the football team made it one of the most successful seasons in recent years.

While last year's crude oil reaches a new step in eighth grade growth . . .

The Eighth Grade Class under the sponsorship of Russell McCreary and Jaunita Skelton have made much progress this year. Mr. McCreary's officers were: President, Larry Harmon; Vice-President, Lee Oller; Secretary, Lois Skelton; Treasurer, Christine Virgen; Reporter, Betty Berkley; Program Chairman, Charlotte Alderson; and Songleader, Margaret Moss. Mrs. Skelton's officers were: President, Jackie Herndon; Vice-President, Carolyn Wheat; Secretary, Ann Owens; Treasurer, Linda Black; Reporter, Sue Ratliff; Program Chairman, Nelda Boles; and Songleader, Lou O'Neal.

Mr. McCreary's homeroom play, presented in February, was the story of underprivileged little sisters fighting the glamour of their big sisters. It was entitled "U.S. in Revolt." Mrs. Skelton's class presented their homeroom play "The Pajama Party."

Student Council officers from the Eighth Grade Class were: Vice-President, Harold Williams; Treasurer, Linda Blevins; and representatives, Barbara Groover and Ronny Davenport.

Betty Berkley was elected Band Princess; Jackie Herndon, Junior High Echo Queen; and Margaret Moss ran for Junior High Football Princess.

Faster, faster flows the time as Freshmen prepare for high school refining

The Ninth Grade Class was sponsored by Fern Merrill and Jason Frizzell this year. Mrs. Merrill's class officers were: President, Billy Cochran; Vice-President, Danny Griffin; Secretary, Glenda Jennings; Treasurer, Raymond Stallcup; Reporter, Albin Firestone; and Program Chairman, Carlene Morris. Class officers for Mr. Frizzell's homeroom were: President, Ralph Kettlewell; Vice-President, Richard Taylor; Secretary, Elizabeth Tivis; Treasurer, Barbara Stewart; Program Chairman, Carl Cook; Reporter, David Thompson; and Song Leader, Charles Edwards.

Jim Paul was president of the Junior High Student Council, Larry Haney, secretary, and Mary Godfrey and Ronald Thomas, representatives.

Gueleta Lauderback reigned as Football Princess. Sandra Owens was the class candidate for Junior High Echo Queen, and Nancy Ward ran for Band Princess.

Mrs. Merrill's assembly was a program of homeroom talent. Jerry Lemley, Wanda Biggs, Gary Gage, Judy McGehee, Mike Dixon, and Nancy Ward took part in the program. "Going, Going, Gone" was presented by Mr. Frizzell's class. It was the story of six backwoodsmen who joined a Lonely Hearts Club.

At last, the long sought refinement is in sight

Tenth grade crude oil pushes into the future . . .

The tenth grade class under Harry Cheadle and George Taylor has progressed throughout the year. Mr. Cheadle's homeroom presented a one-act play entitled "In the Nick of Time" and Mr. Taylor's class presented a table discussion on "National Education Week."

Mr. Cheadle's elected officers were: President, Larry Johnson; Vice-President, Kenneth O'Neal; Secretary, Betty Hill; and Reporter, Janet Riley. Officers for Mr. Taylor's class were: President, Gerry McGlasson; Vice-President, Garry Melton; Secretary, Linda Benton; and Reporter, Carolyn Dudley.

Jan Collins was elected Band Queen. Her crowning came as a climax to the annual Band Carnival held in October. Other queen candidates were Evelyn Barrick, Echo Queen, and Sandra Jones, Football Queen.

Elected to the Student Council by a class election are representatives, Val Wood, Madeania Hughes, Larry Iiams, and Janet Riley.

Through the mass of studies

Juniors push on, the end is in sight

The hardworking Juniors sponsored by Marzine Hines and James Lindsey completed a very successful Junior Play and Junior-Senior Banquet this year. "Neptune" was selected as the theme for the banquet held April 25. It was enjoyed by approximately 250 people. The Junior Play, "The Skelton Walks," sent chills through the audience.

Junior Class officers were: President, Beverly Crabb; Vice-President, Charles Celcer; Secretary, Gary Woulfe; Treasurer, Rocille Wooldridge; and Reporter, Bobby Bray.

Donna Garrett reigned as Football Queen and Judy Worsham as FFA Queen. Susie Herndon was the Junior's candidate for Echo Queen. Donna Garrett was also selected by the student body as their favorite underclass girl. Judy Worsham, Dale Wood, and Marvin Calger were candidates for underclass favorites.
